

LOST CONSCIENCE

---Rev. John Mark (Wahab).

We have reached at the peak point of civilization. Very often we are used to say, 'The world is becoming small to smaller'; further somebody is interested to see the world as a 'Global village'. The great distance from east to west that has been pictured in our thoughts now does not seem a fearful one. It seems that within a moment we can reach to our relatives who stay away from us. For out of luck, for food, or just to survive, we are searching thoroughly the whole world. Any kinds of external resistance's are unable to prevent us from roaming the world. All kinds of unattainable mountains, very dense inaccessible forests, impenetrable wilderness or impassable seas or oceans are now within our reach. We are now world conqueror. Conquering the whole world, we have become honorable nation in knowledge & quality, in education & culture, and we are going to prove those, yes, we are the best-created creature and the best nation.

When the whole world is joyous for mutual fraternal harmony, just at that transitional period, it roared the devastating weapons of destruction stunning the world's conscience. When and where was that occurred? Better to ask - where not?

Man killing man, man is quenching his unsatisfied thirst with man's blood. Today there is no difference in between mankind and ferocious animal. In which cupped hands a man is offering respectful adoration towards his God with due respect, in the next moment he is bearing weapon in those hands to murder his brother. From which gullet a man is singing devotional hymns, from the same throat, he is ordering his own race to displace him from his country. Man is enjoying a frantic joy with the slogan 'Human birth is the best' taking honey and poisons in a same cup.

How is it possible? How can a man run reversibly at the same time? How is an arrow to be thrown at the same time toward two opposite directions? How is a flower to be offered at the feet of two Gods at the same time? To every conscientious and judicious man, this kind of precept of behavior has appeared with a great question. Light and darkness can not co-exist. Can it be a conspiracy between justice and injustice? The Holy Scripture says can it be any imitate harmony in between the God and the devil?

High-tide & ebb-tide, day & night, truth & falsehood are completely opposite, likely, between just Holy God and the mankind's ever foe unchaste devil is also completely opposite and contrary in characters. It is impossible to find any slightest harmony between the Holy God and the devil. Therefore, clearly we can see that the real devotees shall be representatives of God that is the Caliphs of God. So, these Caliphs, by any means cannot be indoctrinated by satanic motto or cannot kill the human being for worldly cause or poor self-interest. Yet, in the society or in the pages of world history, it is seen that man has pronounced the false freedom; not only in such a situation he compares himself with other prisoners around him and then he can feel in his heart a great joy having received leftover lintel and burnt bread.

A beggar never wants to give up his begging purse. If needed, he even fights against his fellows for his filthy and torn away bag. The main reason behind that - he knows very well, without his begging bag, he will not survive. He must have to survive and that is only possible by begging. For that reason a beggar retains his dirty, old and tattered dress thinking it a very valuable thing. He behaves this way because in his life he has never known about a better life than this life.

Today, the mankind is suffering from tragic erosion. He is now like a stalk-detached flower. As long as it was attached at the stalk, he was a beauty of the garden; he was spreading its perfume at the whole area. But being detached, he is now rolling about on the ground in dust & clay. Loosing his real quality, his beauty and grace is fading to be thrown in a dustbin like lifeless and dry rubbish. Is there any prescribed mode to revive the stalk-detached flower again as a lively one?

It is heard that, to develop humanity in the society, several steps and many consultations are being undertaken. In the meantime many organizations have already been set up to establish humanity. In many religions it has been announced that the mankind is the best creation. Many campaigns, seminar-symposium, meetings have been held on this subject in many socio-religious environments. What man has received from his inheritance, it never has never kept him satisfied. If he would sit in idleness, the era of Stone Age never would change. But man has added his own liking to what he has received by the way of inheritance. For example, man builds a tin-shade house in place of a thatched house, and again he builds a building in place of a tin-shade house. Still, day by day the suffering of mankind is increasing. Oozing out man's blood, the earth is becoming bloody and oozy. But not any fruitful sign of stoppage this hellish process is being seen. In one side, calls come from loudspeakers to restore peace, on the other hand, we see the violent excitement of raping, looting or beheading. What a variety of scenes!

Why beauty today has changed into ugliness? Who has started this negative trend? Who has added evil devices in sacred text or in spiritual formula? Why not we, the sufferers are not thinking over it or not getting enough courage to think over it? Where are such fears? Is it the fear to loose our property, or being deserted or for the fear to be beheaded? How long shall we live?

If, by fear we accept unjust actions, can it give us immortality? So, being frightened, there will not have any benefit. But what we have to do is to find out where the devil's evil devices are hidden in the Veda (the name of the Hindu Scripture). We have to examine what act of poisoning happens after eating honey. In the name of peace or to establish solidarity, why do we have to declare a war? Saddam! Don't you suffer from death or will you continue your hellish kingdom until the Second Coming of the holy and great powerful Messiah?

You the devil, keep it in your mind that, people would judge you with their conscience, when they would find unlimited difference, dissimilarities and impassable distance between truth and falsehood. When they will be able to understand that mixing up life with death is not possible, just that moment they will response to the call of the Holy Father. That day they will comeback after a good beating with a broom at the face of the man-eater. Then they will unite together and will go on towards the way of light. Honest soldiers again take shelter in the house of heavenly father without any fear and shall get room in His lap. Their sins will no more be counted because already those have been paid out. The blood of Messiah has paid out the value of sins. Then the worshippers of justice and truth will not mix up together the truth and the false. Knowing the false exactly a false, they will throw it into the fire of everlasting hell.

Devil, you keep it in your mind that you are the liar. Ever & ever, staying in the pond of destruction you will chatter with your teeth and will curse against Holy God, His sons and the Messiah. Today, many have freed from your captivity. They are now able to understand the difference between the truth and false. You do not possess such strength to hold their mouth. Today, each of them is a revolutionary soldier and devoted for beauty, truth and justice. It is not possible to stop a revolution by killing revolutionists. Never was it possible. If it could be done, then the revolutionary consciousness of freeing from the captivity of Satan, would not exist till today; the wave of the revolution set up to free the mankind from crushing by all of the devil force, could not shake the twentieth century.

Man is the worshipper of beauty, a devotee of truth. There are thousands of proofs in man's body. Man wants to decorate himself and wants to restore order and peace in the society. Nobody is satisfied with disorder and clash in the society. Any person, he may be possessed by an evil spirit, may be a free person, a dumb, an orator, a lame or a well-built person, is very careful about his own body. Consciously he does not want to kill himself rather he wants to survive; and as he wants to survive, absent-mindedly he sings _ 'I do not want to die in this beautiful world...'

But question arises why does he still want to kill others, and why does he fasten himself in a death trap? Why does he continuously make conspiracy against others and why does he make himself caught in the self-made net of conspiracy? Is it not a foolishness of man? Is it not the lack of his foresightedness? Certainly, man is lacking in judgment. His knowledge is very little. He is more surrounded by piled up ignorance than knowledge. He can't foresee unimaginable solidarity of Holy God is perceived only in Messiah.

Except Him, not any pure personality shall be available in the world, which is able to show Holy God's full identity. Messiah is the outer expression of Holy God, who being a man came as the words of Holy God. Those who reject Him are the captive and helpless creatures in the cursed devil's net. Messiah is continuously trying to bring them under His tent; so, the Holy Spirit of Messiah is knocking at the doors of both faithful and unfaithful continuously _

"See where I stand at the door, knocking; if anyone listens to my voice and opens the door, I will come in to visit him, and take my supper with him, and he shall sup with me". (Apocalypse 3 : 20).

Anyone who responses listening Isa-Messiah's voice, Messiah makes him a man of new thoughts. He becomes an ideal son of God. As a result of being attached with Messiah, each and everyone will see the grace of God and will receive necessary love, prudence, forgiveness and faith to conquer the lost sons in favor of God. The man, who is cleansed and pure by the blood of Messiah, only he can.

God's name in his mouth but his hands held a blood-painted sword. In one side, man is letting fly peace-pigeons in the sky for world peace, on the other side throwing the destructive missiles to destroy the civilization. How duping an example it is! What was not possible for God, man is performing those acts. Man is trying to push the Holy God and the cursed devil in a same room, trying to make them stay together. It seems that the Holy God is helpless or is a prisoner in man's hand. Is it possible! No, surely it is not possible. Man has muddled his conscience. Man has defamed himself. Sometimes a very tasty food decomposes to food poison. Likewise, man who was created in the same image of God has become a harmful creature by loosing Holy God's holiness and His great model. He can not do any benefit to others, because he has lost the capacity to fulfill the plans of God. There is no way of survival, if once poisoned foods were swallowed. Then & there, acts of food poisoning shall start. Today, man has exactly taken the place of the poisoned.

Why is this defeat, this downward trend of mankind? Where was the man at the beginning? Where has he fallen & how far? What is the beginning history of mankind then? Who can tell the borne-time history of mankind? The men, who have fallen down in-groups, he cannot save themselves. Only the man, who from his beginning is pure & holy, which is exactly the image of Holy God, can offer back the lost authority because, He knows the plans of God behind the creation of man.

Who is that very exceptional man? What does Holy Scripture say about Him, and what is written there regarding the history of man's origin? Regarding the creation of mankind, it is written in Kitabul Mukaddes (The Holy Bible), as follows, "And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil. And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the Garden of Eden to keep and dress it." (Genesis 2 : 7,9,15)

Factually at the eve of creation, man was perfect and unblemished. This man gave the names of all created creatures and things. The responsibility to protect and to run properly of the creation was given on this man. But such a responsibility was given on which man, when he himself becomes a spoiled conscientious, then obviously all the things those remain under his responsibility is bound to be disarrayed, messed and disordered. And for that reason, this is the present situation of the present world and we all are attacked with the steam of poison because of our disobedience; and so we are unable to inhale freely. We all are victims of an unbearable situation. All are today a prisoner in a net of a hunter. But still a prisoner can not give up the hope to be freed. He cannot keep himself quiet. He should not say _ 'We have nothing to do regarding this captivity as we have received it by the way of inheritance'.

But is this statement acceptable? Probably no any prisoner has ever made such comment. He cannot say this. A prisoner only can make this statement when he feels a When a man-killing war breaks out to establish peace, is it really to bring peace or to murder people? The endeavor of establishing peace by murdering man is nothing but a real mockery, a deception. We must have to stop this cheating, this devil's attack, and these immoral tricks.

The sacred text that can not remove man's sorrows and sufferings moreover it increases those were not inspired by God, the beloved Father of the Universe. Obviously that is taught by the cursed devil. Devil is the man's everlasting foe. For the destruction of mankind, continuously he is fighting against man. So, to prevent all the devil's forces, we shall have to be prepared. We have to form an association alliance of harmony, those that shall ready to fight against the devil; if required, loosing our property or life. We shall have to choose our direction of way - either we shall be devoted in the way of truth until our death, or in the way of the cursed devil, we shall roam in the darkness.

We can not follow such god's way, which is a man-eater, who is satisfied by man's blood. Whose followers in one way want to purify themselves by worshipping or devotion, on the other way; for the sake of worldly prosperity they kill man too? To conquer countries or to capture state powers they do not hesitate to murder people; moreover, with a self-proud they write it down in the pages of history. Again, many of them declare such demon-like stories as the holy histories and influence the society in such acts, influence in bad acts and at the same time they make profits by marketing those books. That one should be a holy history book when holy acts are written down; but where barbarian facts are written, that should be called a beastly or a brutal history. It will be nothing but to perform a SRADDHA (Hindu ceremony in honor and for the benefit of dead relatives) to the gods because human children murdering weapons are taken in the same hands by which floral wreaths were offered to the same Gods.

Alas! Oh the blind and selfish gods and you're fallen worshippers. How long will you keep the sons of Adam as slave? How long will you speak about the extreme terror of a bogey? How many will be your drunken sons will be those who are annihilating religion in the name of religion? Who are making the society or the world restless in the name of peace?

Who, for the sake of self-interest, defiles the excellence and holiness that was bought at the cost of life? The path of truth and beauty, which Holy God Himself has prepared by the extreme sacrifice of His own life, how long shall they rotate the sons of Adam in the whirlpool of tempest refusing that eternal path? To redeem the lost sons, Messiah sacrificed His own life. What freight have you given to spoil that great and wonderful opportunity for which the blinded mankind caught it with great satisfaction and faith? Today, for a little reason, they are attempting for a holy war, beheading. Who has created man and who are beheading? Holy God is the creator; He is the protector and life giver. And the cursed devil is the murderer and a fraud. Hi murderer! Whom you cannot create, by which authority you murder him? Hi Namrud! Hey Feroun! Hi the groups of silkworm, he is continuously capturing himself. He does not know when he will be caught in the hands of a weaver to be boiled in water and to be finished.

Man is running madly after numbness. That is a sweaty run and dangerous to life. It seems that a radish has been hanged on the nose of a blind man and that so called radish is the heavenly blessings which can be achieved as a gift by killing a man of different opinion; he may be his own brother or a man like him. He will be more fortunate, his doors of heaven will be wider, and who will be able to kill more man to bring them back in the way of truth. Those liars and cheaters are giving these false aspirations who themselves break their own promises.

If the formulas made and taught by these liars are practiced without any hindrance, it will not take long to be the world without man. Day may come when finding none; the murderers will drive the knife in his own chest. Because, killing after killing, he himself today is a drunk. Many times it is seen that during the time of distribution of looting goods, a quarrel breaks out and as a result, one of the looters murders the other. But at the time of looting, they all untidily, with a great joy, a demon-like way they looted and committed killing. So, there is the phrase _ 'A blind in self-interest is dead in spiritual knowledge'.

A contract between men of this world who are posed by an evil spirit can not be a permanent one. Because that is decaying and easy-breaking which is made concerning the lost world? As everything of this world is perishable, so their contract also fails. But the contract between religious persons is everlasting because that contract is based on the faith concerning everlasting God who is full of love. In this case God Himself gives the guarantee of the contract. So, Messiah said this exactly that He came on earth to give peace, to give life in dead, to give light to blinds and to make the narrow mind broader. He came to turn out both spiritual and worldly poverty, to ease the pain of harassed and expelled people. Messiah sacrificed His life to fill the world with the light of hope tearing the net of frustration.

To express the unlimited solidarity with man, God ungrudgingly in extremely poor state came down on dusty world leaving behind the heavenly happiness. To give peace for mankind, He took the world's due punishment on His head. He has loved the mankind with an everlasting love. Only He has showed the glowing example on heart breaking cross what none has done yet or it is not possible for anyone.

Messiah is the abstract example of the Holy God's unlimited love. In disguise, He is the Ruhul Kuddush (Holy Spirit), the visible Holy Kalam (The living Word of God). Who has seen Him, he has seen God. Observing the attitude and behavior of Messiah towards mankind, it will be understandable that He is the crowned Messiah to save the mankind. He has declared clearly that he has come not to get, but to serve people and has come to offer His own life as the price of redemption for many people. Fulfilling His promise fully, He has proved practically the accuracy of His promise, and so, He is the exact revelation of the Holy God. The holiness, prudence, loves, strength, forgiving attitude possess Messiah's holy blessings and endless good wishes. Only a holy man can distribute and use holy things properly. A clean eye can see everything thoroughly. But it does not mean that defiled conscience with his sins can stand in favor of God. Every sinner has to be purified before meeting with the Holy God.

God arranged to purify all the inhabitants of the world by the blood of Messiah. In this context, here is a passage quoted from Holy Scripture _

"That love resides, not in our showing any love for God, but in his showing love for us first, when he sent out his son to be an atonement for our sins" (1 John 4 : 10).

When all agreed to obey this God's great arrangement, the cursed devil could not agree on it in any circumstances. Moreover, he is continuing to make unreasonable, fabricated and false nets of conspiracy. We are strongly threatening the devil in all circumstances, we are driving him out of the society so that from now on, he goes into the flock of swine; and the mankind can be released, can be free; the lost mankind again can be blessed by receiving God's companionship.
