

Divine Gifts

---Rev. John Mark (Wahab).

Water is a gift of God for every living being. The multifarious usages of water are undeniable. It is also called the Jeeban or life in Bengali.

When water becomes contaminated, that becomes fatal to drink. To drink it again, the task of cleansing, boiling and purification is must. For the sake of purification medicament or special systems are needed, but those agents must absolutely be pure, free from all contaminations.

Who is a man, and who to represent, he is called out? Of course, he is created in the image of the merciful God, to represent Him.

Alas, he is lost, polluted, downcast, ruined and totally failed to act as substitute to the beloved, holy, upright and perfect God!

To regenerate a sinful man for the glory and fulfilling the sole purpose of God, only one divine agent is sent to this fallen world. He is ever-shining, sinless, righteous, compassionate, and full of divine virtues enough to redeem the lost, and turn him into worthwhile for the gladness of the compassionate and merciful God. He is the living and creative Word of God in the bondage of the human being.

Different people have entitled Him as per their own terms to come closer to Him. People of different languages have given different titles to use natural gifts, given to them, yet they fight each other for nothing. We can mention numerous titles in different languages of these natural gifts, yet the impact remains same; as water, oxygen and other natural gifts so far are available in this planet.

Jesus Christ is the living and active compassion of God to the lost world; He is the love of God into human being. He is the prince of peace, rock to stand on, safeguard during disaster and what not for our sake.

A common point peeps into the mind of a sagacious person over the titles of the created things, does any title, so far commonly in use, has any impact or role to change, diminish, accelerate or brighten the quality or any numerical order? Why do people fight on the mere title leaving and ignoring the basic goal, function and utility of the subject in question? What is the sole cause of the Revelation? Why has the merciful, sagacious, compassionate almighty God has sent all the prophets to the wayward people? Who is Jesus Christ and why did He die on the Cross? Does He exonerate the sinners?

Jesus Christ is the only visible picture of the invisible God; He is ever ready to redeem the lost for the glory of the Father in heaven. He has bought back the lost sinners at the cost of His unblemished blood. Anyone, by faith, comes to Him, receives Him duly committing self, He regenerates him into a new creation, for the glory of the Father in heaven. Even being failure in every corner, if any sinner comes to Him duly urged by confidence and faith in Him; He does stretch His hands of compassion to take him immediately in His lap. He alone is the perfect solution to all the complications men do suffer with throughout the ages.

Is not Jesus Christ, the pinnacle of the divine love, compassion, forgiveness and special mercy for the lost world that they may get back to the Father in heaven? It is pathetic to state that, for the commercial and selfish interest people has polluted and confused every divine gift.

Please be confident, encouraged, illuminated and hopeful that only Jesus Christ is the only solution to all of these problems! He does never disown anyone comes to Him by faith. Trust Him right now; He is yours, with His entire riches and wisdom.
